

History - Homes in the past

What are the main differences between Victorian and modern homes?

Lesson sequence. (Learning focus)

To recognise and name different types of homes.

To identify and name different types of houses on a local walk.

To know some differences between houses built in different times.

To compare Victorian and modern houses and household items.

To recognise and name some Victorian household items and know how they were used?

To recall knowledge based on 'Homes in the past' and answer questions.

Key vocabulary.

house	home	history	past	present
change	bungalow	flat	semi-detached	detached
terraced	caravan	Victorian	Tudor	Anglo Saxon
Celtic	larder	range	copper pot	electricity

Sticky learning

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> New History Knowledge Know and understand changes within living memory relating to homes Know that older family / community members have different experiences to me in the present Know the names of a range of household objects from the past. Know that technology and entertainment have changed over time. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> New History Skills Look at images and identify key features. To make comparisons between old and new. Spot old and new things in a picture. Order up to 3 items, artefacts or images in chronological order. Share understanding verbally or in pictures or in writing. Make a statement about how something has changed over time.
---	--

Victorian Household Objects

 A Copper Kettle	 Dolly and Wash Tub	 A Mangle
 A Chamber Pot	 A Sewing Machine	 Range

