Shabbat

Shabbat is the Sabbath day, the holy day for Jews. They celebrate it by resting on the 7th day of the week. On this day the Jews celebrate the creation of the world when God made the world in 6 days and rested on the 7th day.

Some people call it 'the day of delight' and have a special meal with candles and special food. Why is it good to take time to rest? How do you rest?
