Maths:

Times Table Rockstars - Subscription based site helping to improve children's times tables knowledge through games and challenges. All children have been given a username and password to access their account. <https://trockstars.com/>

MyMaths - All children have a username and password. <https://www.mymaths.co.uk/>

Other ways of supporting maths outside of school include asking children to tally items when shopping, converting money or weights, telling the time and reading scales or measuring everyday objects.

Science:

Developing Experts – A primary science website with plenty of fun games, videos and investigations.

Magnets and Forces
